

INTERNET USE POLICY FOR FAMILY HISTORY LIBRARY AND FAMILY HISTORY CENTERS

Notice: Internet Use on Family History Center computers may be filtered and monitored.

To protect our computer systems and patrons and to maintain a family-friendly environment, Internet access is limited by filtering software and Internet activity may be monitored. Users should have no expectation of privacy when accessing the Internet using Family History Center computers. Anyone engaging in any activity deemed inappropriate by the Family History Center will be asked to leave.

Please see our "Policies for Use of Family History Library and Family History Centers" and the FamilySearch website "FamilySearch Rights and Use Information."

To be posted in a prominent place in the Family History Library and all family history centers.
