Use these cards to learn more about the members of the First Presidency and the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles. You could also copy the cards and create a matching game. Print more copies at friend.lds.org. Laminate your cards or use contact paper.
Was called at the age of 22 to serve as bishop of a ward with many widows.

Worked in newspaper publishing and printing.

Was president of BYU Education System.

Played basketball in high school.

Learned physics from his father on their blackboard.

Was a heart surgeon.

Was a mission companion with Elder Cook in England.

Was a mission president in Canada.

Was a mission president in the United States.

Was a mission president in West Germany.

Grew up in New York.

Was nicknamed "the bishop" in college because of his high standards.

Was an airplane pilot.

Was president of BYU.

Was president of BYU.
To read more stories about prophets and apostles, visit lds.org/prophets-and-apostles/what-are-prophets