

A Day to Choose the Right

BY CHERYL SLINKER

1

I wake up early to start my day with so many things to do.

2

I put on my clothes and brush my hair, like my mommy asked me to.

3

I help my daddy with outside chores as I rake leaves in the yard.

4

I play with my sister all afternoon, even though sharing is sometimes hard.

5

As night-time comes, it's time for bed. Daddy reads stories I enjoy.

6

Mommy gently kisses the top of my head and tells me I've been a good boy.

7

I peek out my window to see the moon and whisper a quiet good night.

8

As I say a prayer, I'm thankful this day I remembered to choose the right.
