CHOOSE THE RIGHT WAY
Elliott has a lot of choices to make today. Making the right choices will help him be happy, but making the wrong choices will make him sad. Help Elliott make the right choice. Each time the path in the road splits, choose the path next to the picture that shows him doing something nice.
As your child completes this maze, you can discuss how choosing the right helps us be happy, even when we have difficulties. How does serving and making right choices help our problems seem less significant?

The story on pages 32–33 shows that choosing the right and enduring well help us find happiness, even when our problems are not immediately solved. One scriptural example of this principle is found in Mosiah 24:8–22. You could read or summarize the story of Alma and Amulon, pointing out that even though Alma and his followers were living righteously, their burdens were not immediately removed. You could discuss why the Lord doesn’t always fix our problems right away. How does living righteously help ease our burdens?
