

Friend story needs as of May 2013

Bullying

- coping with being bullied
- not being a bully yourself

Chronic illnesses, injuries, or disabilities

- dealing with it as a child
- being the family member of someone dealing with it

Education

- valuing learning
- showing leadership within school
- setting priorities and sticking to them

Family history

- children getting involved in
- focusing on collecting family stories rather than only processing names
- seeing blessings from participating in

Fear

- overcoming fearful situations
- finding peace amid tumultuous living conditions, natural disasters, etc.

Jesus Christ

- learning about the second coming of
- understanding what His titles mean (Savior, Redeemer, etc.)
- learning the characteristics of
- living His teachings and following His example
- worshipping in meaningful ways

Missionary work

- preparing for full-time service
- befriending others—especially those of other faiths
- inviting others to church and activities
- finding fun ways to be a missionary

Repentance

Resisting dangerous dares

Respect—especially for parents, teachers, and those of the opposite gender

Sedentary living

- appreciating the outdoors
- learning the value of physical work
- avoiding the overuse of media

Service

- within the family
- in the neighborhood—specifically at foodbanks and shelters
- with homeless people and/or refugees

Standards

- choosing wholesome media, including books, movies, music, games, TV shows, youtube videos, etc.
- using clean and uplifting language
- keeping the Sabbath Day holy

Stories featuring 10- to 13-year-old boys as main characters

Stories highlighting the meaningful side of holidays—especially Mother's Day, Father's Day, Easter, Thanksgiving, and Christmas

Temples

Transitioning to young men and young women