

If Any Of You Lack Wisdom

Words and Music by Marlene D. Bartlett

With movement ♩ = 114-134

5

1. Long a - go when Jo - seph Smith was in his ear - ly youth, he wished to know which
2. Jo - seph knew what he should do, he felt he ought to pray. He went in - to the
3. Now the whole world can re - joice, the gos - pel is re - stored, be - cause young Jo - seph church to join, he sought to know the truth. He stud - ied in the Bi - ble, James Sa - cred Grove in ear - ly light of day. He knelt down in hu - mi - li - ty, he prayed in faith and lis - tened to the Lord, and we can seek, as Jo - seph did, we one, verse five he read. The words spoke deep with - in his soul, he pon - dered what they prayed to God a - bove. The Fa - ther and The Son ap - peared, his soul was filled with too, in faith can pray. Yes, we can search the scrip - tures and fol - low what they

10

15

James 1:5

20

chorus

said;
love.
say;

If a - ny of you lack wis - dom, let him ask of 25

God, that gi - veth to all men lib - er - al - ly, and up - braid - eth not; and

30

1.2.

3.

it shall be gi - ven him.

35

rit.

If a - ny of you lack wis - dom, ask of God.