

My Father

written by Linda Chapman and Bonnie Heidenreich

My fa - ther's hands are stead - y and kind. They hold me and show me the way. And fa - ther's eyes are ten - der and wise. They twin - kle with laugh - ter and fun. They fa - ther's heart is turned t'wards— God. He serves do - ing all that he can. Re - when they are gent - ly placed on my head, The fear in my heart goes a - way. My scat - ter the sun - shine; weep when I'm sad; And flect - ing the love that comes from a - bove, He rest when the day is done. Knees which are worn from the years of kneel - ing to pray fer - vent - ly.

Feet which have walked ma - ny miles; mak - ing a path for me. My fol - lows a heav'n - ly plan.
