Words and Music by Carol Graff Gunn

Piano

Ev'ry'bo-dy needs some - bod - y. Ev'-ry-bod-y needs a friend. Be

The first system of musical notation for the piano accompaniment. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The melody in the treble staff begins with a quarter note G4, followed by eighth notes A4, Bb4, C5, D5, E5, F5, G5, and a quarter rest. The bass staff provides a simple harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

kind in word and deed. Help oth-ers in their need. Be a pers-on others can de- pend on.

The second system of musical notation, continuing the piano accompaniment. The treble staff continues the melody with eighth notes and quarter notes. The bass staff continues the harmonic accompaniment.

Je-sus said, "Do un- to oth - ers As you'd have them do to you." Do

The third system of musical notation. The treble staff features a melodic line with some grace notes. The bass staff continues the accompaniment.

serv-ice all the while, and do it with a smile, and you will *"tickle all the way through!" (feel good)

The fourth and final system of musical notation. The treble staff concludes the melody with a quarter note G4. The bass staff concludes the accompaniment with a final chord.
