

I've Set My Path to Serve Thee

(Hymn)

Text and Music by Kathleen Newton

With determination ♩ = 100

1

I've set my path to serve thee Where ev - er thou would ask. It I Per -
So may give up of thy child - ren Are lost and can - not own. see. With mat - ters not how hard the road, How dif - fi cult the task. I haps a - mid their cries of scorn I'll seem to walk a lone. Yet arms out - stretched I'll beck - on them To come and walk with me. To - may not pass through lands I know, But still my steps are sure. I heed - less I will mark press on, The rod clasped in my hand. I'll geth - er we will thy path That leads un - to thy throne. Un - on - ly seek to do thy will, And with thee I'm se - cure. stand.

6

10

14

plod through mists but ne - ver doubt, Un - til I un - der - home.
til at last, with shouts of joy, We all are wel - comed.

© 2000 by Kathleen Newton

This hymn may be copied for incidental, noncommercial church or home use.