

God Did Provide Himself a Lamb

(Hymn)

Text by Rodney Turner

Music by Anna Morgan Oaks

Copyright 2000 by Anna Morgan Oaks and Rodney Turner. This hymn may be copied for incidental, noncommercial church or home use.

with contemplation ♩ = 60 - 69

God did pro - vide him - self a Lamb, To sac - ri -
 For Christ was des - him - self to a tone, And so he Then what of sit pains down that come a way ham As pass - ing Shall I sit down with A - bra - ham Who met the fice and pay sin's price. For him there was no wait - ing ram In thick - et came our souls to claim. He trod the grapes of wrath a lone For one and years bring of God's and tears? They are but shad - ows born of clay lamb, That fade and test of be - hest To of - fer his most pre - cious If I with -

by, nor an - gel high To spare the Son he sent to die.
 all, the great and small, To save them free - ly from the Fall.
 flee, and I shall see told Their hap - py har - vest come to me.
 hold, should I be To sac - ri - fice of my own fold?

Genesis 22:1-18; Mark 14:32-41