

THE PROPHET JOSEPH

(Children's Song)

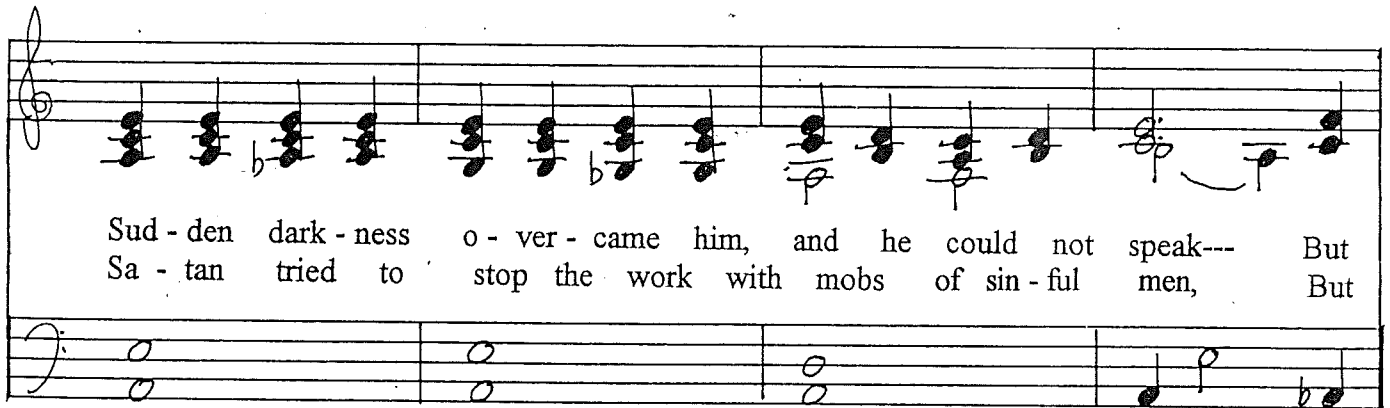

Words and music by Sandra Peck Nelson

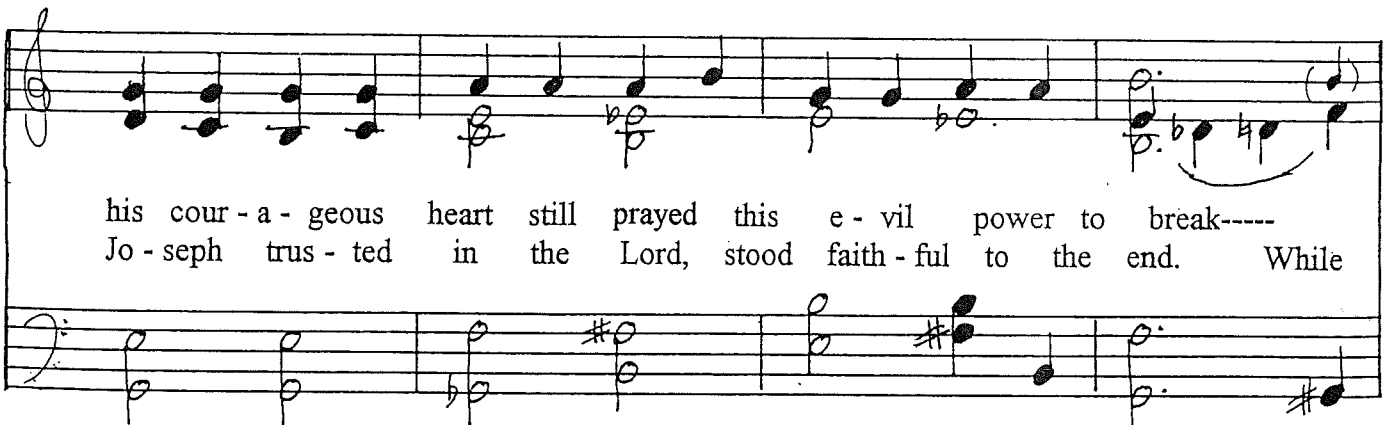

1. On a clear spring morn - ing, Jo - seph sought the Lord in prayer----
2. Jo - seph Smith the pro - phet pre - cious know - ledge did re - store, brought

In the qui - et grove he knelt to ask for wis - dom there---- forth the Book of Mor - mon, or - gan - ized Christ's church once more----

Sud - den dark - ness o - ver - came him, and he could not speak--- But Sa - tan tried to stop the work with mobs of sin - ful men, But his cour - a - geous heart still prayed this e - vil power to break---- Jo - seph trus - ted in the Lord, stood faith - ful to the end. While

Then in glor - ious vis - ion Heav'n - ly Fath - er and His Son calmed young his life was ta - ken but the work he left grows great--- His Jo - seph's fears and taught him, and his mis - sion had be - gun.

tes - ti - mo - ny ev - er bright, his mis - sion now com - plete.
