

Employment and Human Resources Service Opportunities

President Monson, in speaking of the 75th Anniversary of the Welfare Program, reminds us that “this year marks the 75th anniversary of this inspired program, which has blessed the lives of so many.” He went on to say, “I declare that the welfare program of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is inspired of Almighty God.” (CR Apr 2011, Ensign May 2011, p 90)

So many people need help at this time to find gainful employment. You would be meeting a great need as you help families become self-sufficient.

To find current opportunities to serve in an Employment Resource Center, go to:

“Lds.org” click on

“Menu” click on

“Missionary Service” click on

“Current Opportunities” then in the upper right-hand click on

“Select an Interest” then in the drop-down alphabetical list, click on

“Employment and Human Resources” then highlight this selection, click

“Search” and you will see service opportunities now available.

We know your lives will be blessed as you bless the lives of families who need hope, encouragement and the skills to find jobs.
