

The Roles of the Holy Ghost, the Teacher, and the Learner in Gospel Learning

- Based on what we have discussed about the roles of the Holy Ghost, the teacher, and students, what would happen if we removed any one of these roles from our seminary class?
- What are some attitudes or behaviors that can prevent the Spirit from teaching us truth in a seminary class?
- What are some spiritual, mental, and physical efforts we can make to invite the Spirit to teach and testify to us of truth?
- How can an entire class be influenced by each student fulfilling his or her role in gospel learning?
