Naaman was a captain of a large army. He had a skin disease called leprosy. He asked Elisha, the prophet, to heal him. Elisha told his servant to tell Naaman to wash in the river Jordan seven times and he would be healed. Follow Naaman as he goes to wash in the river and is healed.