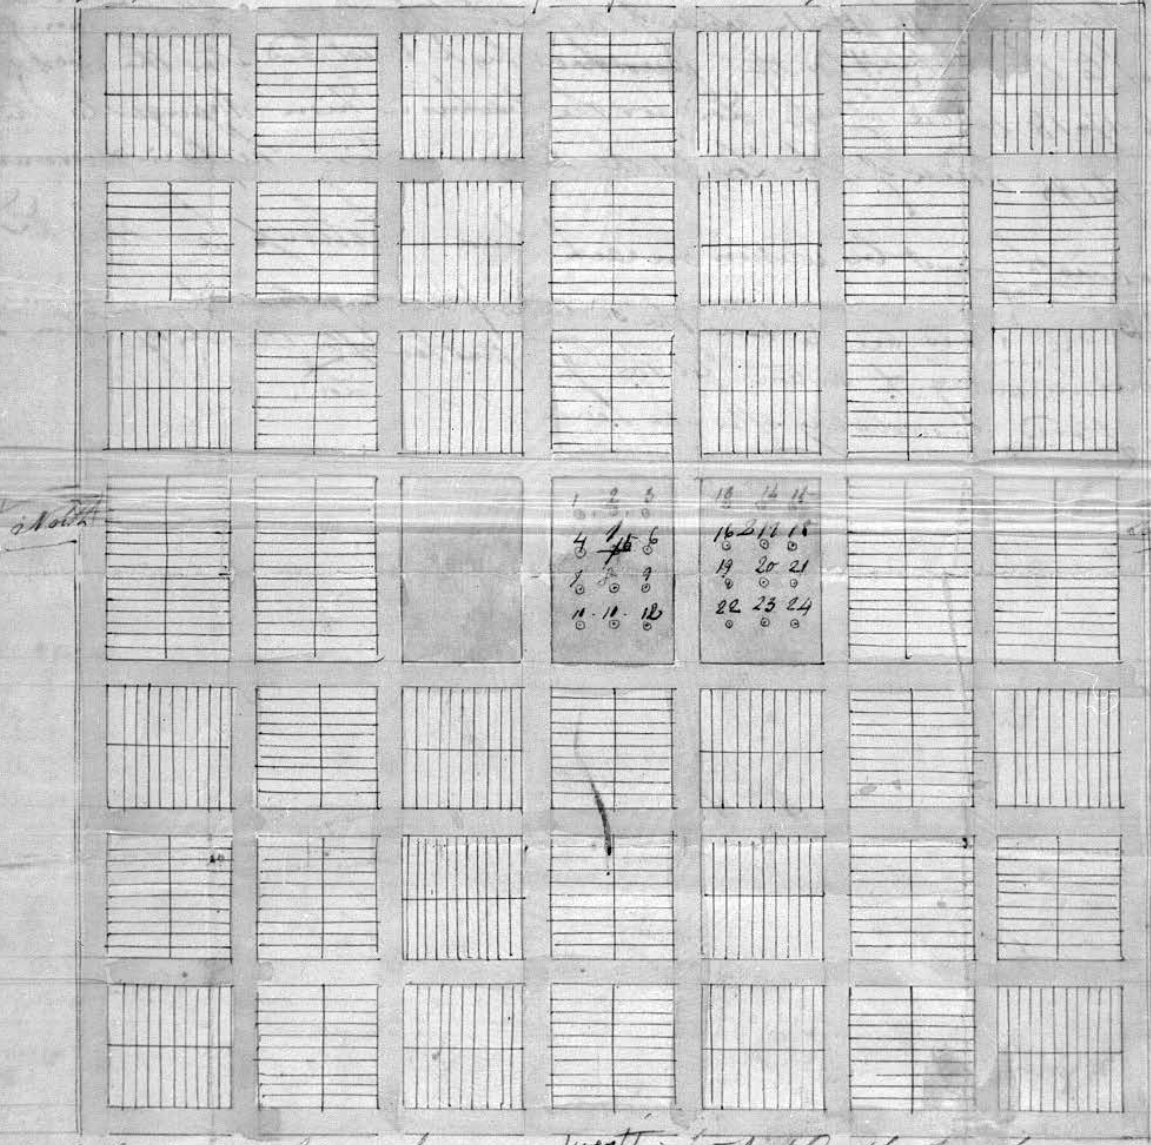
Explanation— The [illegible] contains one mile square all the squares in the plot contains ten acres each being 40 rods square you will observe that the lots are laid off alternate in the squares in one square running from the east and west to the middle line, and the next the lots runs from the east and west to the middle line each lot is 4 rods wide this is in front and 20 back making 4/5 of an acre in each lot so that no one street will be built on more than one square the houses stand one one street and on the next on another except the middle range of squares which runs North and south in which range are the planted squares the lots are laid off first these squares North and south also from because these squares are 20 rods by 60 being twenty rods longer than the long way of them being east and west and spanning all the lots these squares North and south it maps all the lots in the City you see. The planted squares in the middle are for publick buildings the one [East] without any figure is for store houses &c



[illegible] Lot in the City is 4 rods wide and 20 rods long and contains one acre and a quarter according to the Lots in the City you see.

Bishop and to be divided to his near figure one [West] is for Temples for the use of the Priesthood the circles in each of this square are the places for the temples you will see it contains twelve 2 is for Temples for the Lesser Priesthood it is also to contain 12 Temples the whole plot is to contain from 15 to 20 thousand people you will therefore see that it will require 24 buildings to contain them with houses of worship schools &c more of these temples are to be smaller than those of which we send you the draft this Temple is to be built in square number marked square one and to be built where the circle is which has reference to. On the south and south of the plot where the land is to be laid off for barns stables &c for the use of the city so that no barns or stables will be in the town is to be laid off for barns stables &c for the use of the city so that no barns or stables will be in the City among the barns the ground to be occupied for these must be laid off according to wisdom. For three south and south are to be laid off the farms for the agriculturists & sufficient quantity of land to support the whole plot and it cannot be laid off without going a great distance from the City these must also be laid off on the east and west when this square is thus laid off and supplied lay off another in the same way and supplied &c for work in these last days and let every man have his lot for this is the City of Zion
