

TAKING THE MYSTERY OUT OF SUBMITTING NAMES FOR THE TEMPLE

Thanks to modern technology, finding and taking family names to the temple has never been easier. FamilySearch.org makes it possible to print out cards that you can take to the temple:

FULFILLMENT OF PROPHECY

“I bear testimony that the feelings of love you have for your family members—wherever they may be—are a fulfillment of the promise that Elijah would come. He did come. Children’s hearts are turning to their fathers, and fathers’ hearts are turning to their children (see Malachi 4:5–6; Joseph Smith—History 1:38–39). When you feel the urge to find the names of your ancestors and take those names to the temple, you are experiencing the fulfillment of that prophecy.”

President Henry B. Eyring, First Counselor in the First Presidency, “The Promise of Hearts Turning,” Ensign, July 2014, 5.

The screenshot shows the FamilySearch Temple interface. At the top, there are navigation tabs: Family Tree, Memories, Search, Indexing, and Temple (which is highlighted). Below the tabs, there are statistics: ALL RESERVED (52), NOT PRINTED (28), PRINTED (24), SHARED (0), and OPPORTUNITIES (0). There are buttons for Filter, Print, Share, and Unreserve. Below this is a table of reserved names with columns for NAME, ORDINANCES, and DATE RESERVED.
