

Seminary and Institute at a Glance

152 countries have seminary or institute classes.

88.8% of seminary programs gather in a meeting-house or home rather than a seminary-specific building.

307 institute classes worldwide have only one student.

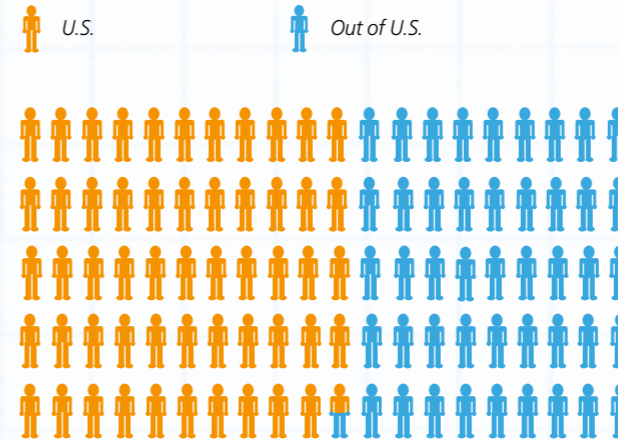

1,549 seminary classes worldwide have only one student.

9 students form the average seminary class.

592 students make up the largest institute class in the world.

All data taken from 2014–15 records

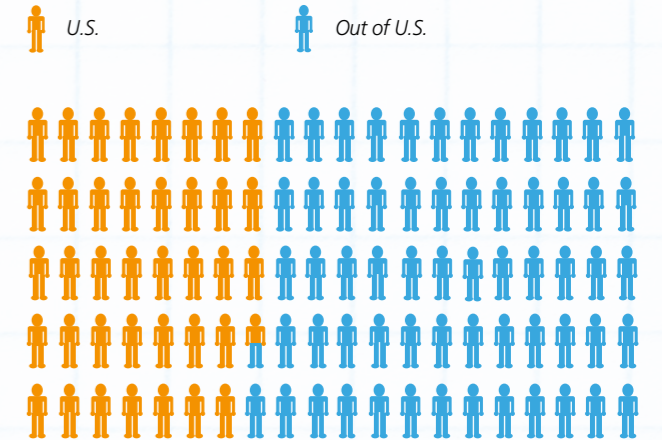

Seminary Enrollment

Around the world, 404,270 students are enrolled in seminary:

- 220,717 (U.S.)
- 183,553 (out of U.S.)

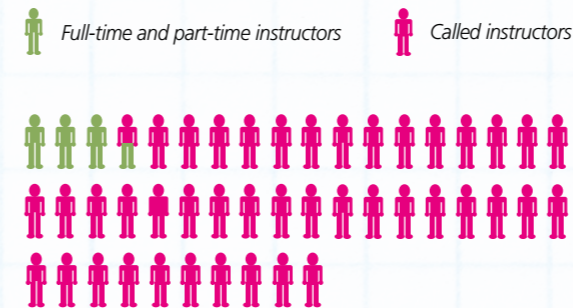

Institute Enrollment

Around the world, 357,760 students are enrolled in institute:

- 137,740 (U.S.)
- 220,020 (out of U.S.)

Teachers

Globally, more than 48,000 members teach seminary and institute. Only 6.4% are full-time or part-time instructors.

