

GEORGE ALBERT SMITH

George Albert Smith was 21 when he was first called to serve the young men of the Church. He became involved with the Boy Scouts of America, which honored him for his service. While serving as an Apostle, George Albert Smith was also a leader in several national and international farming organizations. He dedicated the Idaho Falls Idaho Temple.