

Family Fun Time

Read “Rowdy to Reverent” (page 4). Being reverent means being respectful of sacred things. We should make Sunday a special day when we reverently focus on Jesus and Heavenly Father. What are things your family can do to focus on Jesus and Heavenly Father on Sunday?

Be sure to get an adult’s help with this activity and recipe.

Peanut Butter Pudding

1/2 cup whipping cream

1 tablespoon sugar

1/4 cup creamy peanut butter

1 3.4-oz (96-g) package instant chocolate pudding

chopped peanuts or mini chocolate chips (optional)

1. Beat the whipping cream and sugar with a hand mixer until it forms stiff peaks.
2. In a separate bowl, mix the peanut butter until it’s smooth. Mix in the whipped topping.
3. Make the chocolate pudding according to the package instructions.
4. Scoop the pudding into bowls and top with the peanut-butter mix. Sprinkle with nuts or chocolate chips.

TIP: Put “Idea Cards” in your box for things your family can do on Sunday: go on a walk, visit a neighbor, call family, make cookies for missionaries, index at FamilySearch.org, etc.

Sunday Box

Make an activity box full of good things to do on Sunday! Decorate a box or bag and fill it with good activities and projects. What can you put in your box? Here are some ideas:

scripture stories

copies of the Friend

puzzles

pictures from the gospel art collection

family photos

scripture figures (see the inside back cover of this issue)

art supplies

journals to write in

CDs of Primary songs

cards and pens to write letters
