

Jesus told His disciples to feed the people so they wouldn't have to leave. A boy had five loaves of bread and two fish. But it wasn't enough to feed everyone.

Jesus blessed the food and broke it into pieces. Then the disciples passed it out to the people. Would there be enough food?