

Joseph worked hard. He made good choices, even when people lied about him and put him in prison.

Even during the hard times, Joseph trusted God. And God was with Joseph. Joseph became a leader in Egypt! When he got older, he helped lead his family, just like God said he would.