

SCRIPTURE STORIES

Elijah and the Widow

By Kim Webb Reid

A prophet named Elijah warned people a famine would come. There was no rain, and plants didn't grow. Elijah drank water from a creek. God sent birds to bring him food. But then the creek dried up. God told Elijah to find a woman in town, and she would feed him.