

HELLO

from the Dominican Republic!

Hi!
I'm Margo.
This is my brother Paolo.

We're visiting the Dominican Republic. Come along with us!

Dominican Republic

The Dominican Republic is an island in the Caribbean Sea. It's next door to the country of Haiti. About 10 million people live in the Dominican Republic, including about 130,000 Church members.

Santo Domingo

Most people in the Dominican Republic speak Spanish. Here's a boy with el Libro de Mormón—the Book of Mormon.

Lots of kids in the Dominican Republic like playing baseball. It's the country's most popular sport.

These children enjoyed sharing their testimonies in the Primary program, like Ian in the story on page 14.

The Dominican Republic has one temple, in Santo Domingo. The writing says, "Santidad al Señor: La Casa del Señor." That means, "Holiness to the Lord: The House of the Lord."

MEET SOME FRIENDS FROM THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC!

I like to help the younger children in Primary when they get noisy. I write the songs on pieces of paper and help them sing. I help them understand when we read scriptures.

I love Jesus, and I feel very close to Him. I also love the hymns and Primary songs.

Are you from the Dominican Republic? Write to us!
We'd love to hear from you.
Turn to page 39 for our address.

Last year the prophet visited the Dominican Republic and spoke to the people in Spanish.

Thanks for exploring the Dominican Republic
with us. Now we're off to Cambodia!
