

Cut out the cards, fold on the dotted line, and tape them closed.

MARIE CARDON

1834–1914

“God was with me.”

- As a girl, she had a dream about missionaries teaching her family in Italy.
- When she was a teenager, missionaries taught her family and baptized them.
- Once day when the missionaries were there, an angry mob came. Marie bravely held up her Bible and told them to leave. And they did!
- She and her family sailed across the ocean and crossed the plains to be with the Saints.

Marie C. Guild autobiography, p. 15, Church History Library, Salt Lake City, Utah.

“The Lord has indeed blessed me.”

- He was born in Denmark and raised by his grandmother.
- Missionaries taught him the gospel. He was baptized at age 12.
- He traveled to Utah to be with the Saints. Later, he was a mission president back in Europe.
- He served as an Apostle and as a member of the First Presidency.

In Danish Apostle: The Diaries of Anthon H. Lund, 1890–1921 (2006), xxvi.

ANTHON LUND

1844–1921