Willard's Helping Hands

At home, Willard helps by doing chores, teaching his siblings, and reading the scriptures with his family. He serves at church and in his city. Willard likes to help anytime he is asked.

Willard's family members were refugees. They had to leave their home country. They love to serve people around them and help their family back in Burundi too.

One Christmas, a friend shared a jar of coins with Willard and his family. They decided to share the coins with someone else to help them! Willard said, "Jesus is the Son of God. He showed us that He cares about people by serving them." ●

Willard and his brother Devaun help by sharing their coins and doing chores.

Willard followed Jesus by reaching out to others. Turn the page to read a story about how Jesus served.
