What we refer to as the Abrahamic covenant is in reality the new and everlasting covenant as it was given to Abraham and his posterity. It was new to Abraham because he received it as part of a new dispensation of the gospel, but it is everlasting in that the same covenant is extended to all of God’s children in all gospel dispensations, beginning with Adam.

Elder D. Todd Christofferson of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles explained what this covenant entails: “The new and everlasting covenant is the gospel of Jesus Christ. In other words, the doctrines and commandments of the gospel constitute the substance of an everlasting covenant between God and man that is newly restored in each dispensation.” (“The Power of Covenants,” Ensign, May 2009, 20).

This chart provides an overview of God’s everlasting covenant as it was renewed in Jesus’s day and again in our own. It shows how the Lord has fulfilled and continues to fulfill His covenant promises to us, including those promises He made to Abraham.
