

Tithing and other donations are given to the Lord through a member of your bishopric or branch presidency.

Tithing pays for the cost of building and maintaining temples and meetinghouses.

Tithing pays for the translation and publication of scriptures and lesson materials.

Tithing funds are transmitted from wards and branches to Church headquarters, where a council that includes the First Presidency decides how these sacred funds will be used.

Tithing helps pay for educating young members in Church schools, seminaries, and institutes of religion.
