

Many people came to hear Alma teach about Jesus Christ. Alma taught that if they repented and followed Jesus, they could be baptized.

The people clapped with joy. They promised to comfort others. They promised to love God and tell other people about Him. They were ready to be baptized.

