

When Jesus came to earth, He showed us the right way to live. He helped people. He taught them to love one another.

Jesus suffered in the Garden of Gethsemane and on the cross. He did this so we could repent and so we could live again after we die.