

Jesus told His disciples to feed the people so they wouldn't have to leave. But the disciples only had five loaves of bread and two fish. It wasn't enough to feed everyone.

Jesus blessed the food and broke it into pieces. Then the disciples passed it out to the people. Would there be enough food?