Jesus Christ can give us lasting peace, even during hardships and trials.

Peace in the World vs.

PEACE IN CHRIST

By Sarah Hanson

In a world of social, political, and religious turmoil, what do you need in order to have peace? Good friends? A loving family? Safety and security? Sometimes we think our lives have to meet requirements like these so we can truly feel at peace. But life will never be 100 percent perfect and easy. So how do we deal with trials and feel peace at the same time? The world tells us that peace can be felt only when there isn’t any conflict. But that isn’t true! Through His gospel, Jesus Christ provides us with an inner peace that surpasses the peace the world offers. If we look to Him with faith, we can feel peace in any circumstance.

The Savior taught, “Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you” (John 14:27; emphasis added). Here are some ways the world’s peace differs from Jesus Christ’s peace.

1. Peace should come instantly—we shouldn’t have to wait for it!
2. You can’t find peace during difficulties.
3. Peace is the absence of war.
4. Peace comes through living however you want to live.
5. Admitting your faults and weaknesses does not bring peace.
6. Peace comes from only focusing on your needs.
7. Peace comes from seeking others’ approval.
8. “The kind of peace that is the reward of righteousness... is a promised gift of the Savior’s mission and atoning sacrifice.”

If we make Jesus Christ the focus of our lives, we really will feel Him “speak peace to our souls” (Alma 58:11). In this world we will experience hard times, but we are blessed to know that we have someone we can turn to in any challenging circumstance. The Savior said, “These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world” (John 16:33). Because of the Savior’s Atonement, peace is possible today and forever.
