I was nervous at my baptism, but when I got in the water, I felt full of joy and happiness.

Thomas B., age 8, Uruguay

We traveled from Cambodia to the Hong Kong China Temple so that my little sister, Laura, could be sealed to our family. I felt the Spirit in that special place.

Rosa P., age 9, Cambodia

One day in class, I was reading quietly while everyone else played board games. When the bell rang, they stuffed the games back on the shelf and made a mess. I started cleaning it up, and soon everyone else started helping. I let my light shine by being a good example.

Winnie W., age 10, Canada

When I turned eight, my grandparents and many friends came to my baptism. My father baptized and confirmed me. Later I donated 12 inches (30 cm) of my hair to a child with cancer. My birthday made me very happy!
