

Dear Parents,

Jesus told His disciples to take the gospel to “all the world” (Mark 16:15). This month’s magazine can give your family ideas for sharing the gospel wherever you live. If everyone with this magazine shared the gospel with just one other family, imagine how many more people would learn about Jesus! Here are some questions you could talk about as you read each story:

- Is there someone our family can invite to Primary, a baptism, or a Church activity?
- What can our family do this month to share the gospel through our example?
- Do our friends and neighbors know we are Christians?

As a family, mark all of the times someone in these stories shares the gospel. Then make your own family mission plan. And let us know how it goes!

Let’s fill the world with goodness!
