

CONCERTS IN THE PARK – 2013

Enjoy free, informal concerts at the beautiful Brigham Young Historic Park on Tuesday and Friday evenings throughout June, July, and August. Concerts are one hour and all ages are welcome to attend. No tickets needed.

Seating is limited; blankets or lawn chairs are welcome. The Brigham Young Historic Park is on the southeast corner of State Street and 2nd Avenue (North Temple), one block east of Temple Square.

In case of inclement weather, the concert will be moved indoors to the Assembly Hall on Temple Square. For concert updates, the information hotline is 801-240-3323.

JUNE – 8:00 p.m.

- 4 Pizzicato Strings; children's string ensemble variety show
- 7 Broadway Crescendo; lilting and fun melodies of Broadway show tunes
- 11 Octappella; international award-winning a cappella vocal band
- 14 Utah National Guard 23rd Army Band; patriotic program and popular band music
- 18 One Clear Voice; inspirational female recording group and winners of Pearl Awards
- 21 Lorisa Pulotu; variety program of contemporary songs to timeless classics by singer/songwriter
- 25 Sam Payne and Savoy; jazz music at its finest
- 28 Nancy Hanson; Popular contemporary folk singer/songwriter

JULY – 8:00 p.m.

- 2 TimeRiver; Family-friendly folk music with lively banjo and soft mandolin/guitar
- 5 The California Air National Guard, Band of the Southwest; classic concert band favorites and patriotic selections
- 9 Israel Scouts Friendship Caravan; variety show by talented Israeli youth
- 12 Mercy River; popular vocal trio shares harmony, laughter, and inspirational songs
- 16 Crescendo Quartet; a cappella plus...golden oldies, barbershop, & contemporary 4-part harmony
- 19 No Park Concert: Annual Pioneer Concert in Conference Center featuring the Mormon Tabernacle Choir and the Orchestra at Temple Square. Call 801-570-0080 or visit www.lds.org/events for ticket availability.
- 23 Clive Romney & Willingly; original folk music, cowboy poetry & storytelling of Utah's best unknown pioneer sagas

- 26 The Lower Lights; folk-gospel collective of well-known Utah musicians share part vigil, part revival hymns
- 30 New Hot 5; New Orleans-style Dixieland jazz band

AUGUST – 7:30 p.m.

- 2 Stone Deep; men's vocal trio presenting a variety show of popular tunes
- 6 Unstrung; bluegrass and old-time gospel music
- 9 Dr. Decibel & the Sound Prescription; classic rock-n-roll band
- 13 Ayllupura; South American and Andean folk music
- 16 Fire on the Mountain; combine a banjo, fiddles, and guitars and you get Utah's mountain music
- 20 Stratford Street Big Band & Sugar Sisters; swing band and vocalists sharing songs from the Big Band era
- 23 Wasatch & District Pipe Band; crowd favorite...award-winning bagpipers and Celtic drummers
- 27 Kelly & Laura Griffiths; variety of songs by husband-wife vocal duo: Broadway & jazz to country, pop, and children's movie tunes
- 30 Bless4; fan favorite in Japan; siblings pop group