

The Resurrection

Hymn Text Submission

Our Lord is risen from the tomb
The sons of men to save.
Because He lives, we too shall rise;
He opens ev'ry grave.
Receive the fullness of Christ's joy,
For death is overcome.
He is the Resurrection,
The Holy Father's Son.

In Christ, shall all be made alive--
Our Savior conquered death.
In Him alone we'll find new life,
And see God in the flesh.
O grave, where is thy victory?
O death, where is thy sting?
Christ is the Resurrection,
Redeemer, Lord and King.

Seek not the living midst the dead,
Christ rose in pow'r and might.
Now death is vanquished ever more,
O gone at last the night.
The bands of death the Lord hath loosed.
Through Christ, the dead are changed,
And by the Resurrection
Restored to perfect frame.
