hearts intertwined Moving forward together

In the body of Christ

We will go where He leads us Hand in hand, through the storm Though we pass darkness He will help us carry on Left alone we're defenseless But with Him by our side We can go even further

In the body of Christ
We are raising the banner On the mountain where we stand Like a light to the nations Spreading hope through every land With our arms wide open As a chorus  we cry “There is room, come and join us”  In the body of Christ There is room, come and join us  In the body of Christ
